

HOME STUDY WEEK
October 20-24, 2008

Home Study Week is an opportunity for your family to explore learning opportunities for your child outside of the classroom. A special area of interest, a creative or scientific project, or a visit to a historical site or reenactment are a few examples which may serve as your focus. Parents should plan this special area of study to fulfill the state requirement of 4 hours per day, or 20 hours total for the week. This completed form should be returned to your teacher on Wednesday, October 29, 2008.

Please record below a brief summary of your child's Home Study Week:
